SHAKESPEARE IN THE PARK: Two dramatic comedies in revolving repertory

“MEASURE FOR MEASURE”

by William Shakespeare

Shakespeare’s dark comedy Measure for Measure takes us from the halls of power to the intimate confines of the bedroom and from the convent to the executioner’s block. It is a bracing and bawdy glimpse of power raging unchecked. The play deals with the issues of mercy, justice, and truth and their relationship to pride and humility: "Some rise by sin, and some by virtue fall".

June 21, 23, 28 & 29 – Thursdays & Saturdays – at 6:30 PM

July 5 & 7 – Thursdays & Fridays – at 6:30 PM

The Park opens at 5:30 PM for picnicking.

“THE LADY’S NOT FOR BURNING”

By Christopher Fry

The Lady’s Not for Burning is set in the middle ages and the action is put into motion by three main plots: Nicholas Devize is trying to steal his brother Humphrey’s fiancé, Alizon Elliot. Thomas Mendip shows up at the house of the Mayor, claims to be the devil and demands to be hanged; and Jennet Jourdemayne arrives at the mayor’s house at the same time, fleeing a mob that is accusing her of witchcraft. The plot is a web of subplots that work their way through several hilarious misunderstandings and changes of heart toward a conclusion that is unpredictable and very funny.
